Blessed Are Year A Our Hassles

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

As much as we all might like a hassle free life, for the person of faith the Beatitudes are markers of when God slips into our consciousness. They are life's doorways to a deepening sense of God-with-us. "Blessed are the poor in spirit" is not about material poverty, though it may include such times. To be poor in spirit is to be dependent upon God because we have run out of our own self-sufficiencies. There is nowhere else to go. "Blessed are they who mourn" is about times when we grieve the loss of someone or something we love deeply. Who or what will now sustain us? "Blessed are the meek" is about giving up the need to have our own way all the time. It recognizes that sometimes God's way is breaking into what we prefer. "Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness," that is, for a relationship with God. It is ultimately a hunger for harmony. "Blessed are the merciful" is about being forgiving and about those who live out the corporal works of mercy—feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, and the rest. In them we find the presence of God. "Blessed are the clean of heart" is when we come to realize we cannot have it all. Then there is only one who will satisfy our longing. "Blessed are the peacemakers" are those who not only love peace but work for peace, for God is peace. "Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness." They live for an ultimate good greater than their own.

“PARISH MISSION STATEMENT” Our Lady Of Consolation Parish, Melfort is a people walking together in the footsteps of Jesus, making the great Catholic Tradition of Praise, Learning and Guidance come alive for our age. As a Faith Community, we witness the grace of God to all people and His presence in creation. As a parish home, reflecting the love of God, we welcome and reach out to all in celebration of joyful and sorrowful moments of life. We look to Mary as our model in living our Mission.

Dear Padre

At Mass, why does the priest put a part of the consecrated host into the chalice?

The celebration of the Eucharist was known as "the breaking of the bread" in the Acts of the Apostles (2:42). "The gesture of breaking bread done by Christ at the Last Supper, which in apostolic times gave the entire Eucharistic Action its name, signifies that the many faithful are made one body (1 Corinthians 10:17) by receiving Communion from the one Bread of Life, which is Christ..." (General Instruction of the Roman Missal, 83). At Mass, bread is broken and wine is poured for Communion, just as the Body of Christ was broken and the Blood of Christ was poured out on the cross. In this fraction rite, we recognize Christ in "the breaking of the bread," as did his disciples on the road to Emmaus (Luke 23:30-31). After the fraction of the bread, the priest places a small piece of it into the chalice "to signify the unity of the Body and Blood of the Lord in the work of salvation, namely, of the Body of Jesus Christ, living and glorious. This rite is called the commingling. While the Agnus Dei ("Lamb of God") accompanies the fraction of the bread, the priest quietly recites a prayer of preparation for Communion "so that he may fruitfully receive the Body and Blood of Christ. The faithful do the same, praying silently
